Nominee Information

Stefennie Jagt		Stefennie lives in Brantford and has received services from Community Living Brant for several years. She is a strong advocate for women's issues. She has been a participant in CLBrant's focus groups and self-advocate work. She loves to write, and her writings advocate that people matter. Stefennie has served as a Director on the Board since June 2022.
Cristin Ladner		Cristin became Executive Director of Community Living Brant in 2022, but she began her career with the agency in 2004. Cristin was appointed to the role of Secretary on the Board in June 2022.
Jim MacAlpine		Jim brings a family perspective to the Board. He is retired and has been hands-on active with his son and grandson in seeking the best help for them to function in life and school. He continues to educate himself by attending seminars and conferences on the intricacies of FASD and autism. Jim was appointed to the Board in April, 2024.
Matthew Marriott		Matthew has worked in the mental health field for the past fifteen years, predominately working with adolescents. Working in this field has allowed him the opportunity to see people grow and achieve many accomplishments. Brantford has been his home for the past twenty-six years and he looks forward to being able to give back to the community. Matthew was appointed to the Board in April, 2024.
